

(BS-ERA.NET) <http://bs-era.net/>

Announcement of results

In this international grant competition, which was supported by the Science Development Foundation, 8 representatives from Azerbaijan, operated as project coordinators (2) executives (6). Out of 55 projects from 11 countries, 11 projects have won the competition. The statistics of winning projects across countries are as follows:

Germany	2
Azerbaijan	1
Bulgaria	1
Romania	4
Greece	3

Brief information about the winner project:

Project name - "Reliability and sustainability of machines and mechanisms used in oil and gas transportation in the Black Sea Region"

The amount of the project is € 194,000 (38,450 euros of this amount is provided by the Science Development Foundation, as well as the amount allocated for Azerbaijan side by INTAS programme is € 11,550)

Code of the project in the ERA.NET pilot grant competition - RDMMOGT

Project direction for the ERA.NET pilot grant competition - ENV - 1.1 Mineral resource utilization and transportation - impact on the environment

Project Manager - Doctor of Technical Sciences, Professor Valeh Bakhshaliyev, Azerbaijan Technical University, Department of "Theoretical Mechanics"

Project participants from Azerbaijan

1. Farhad Aslanzade, Azerbaijan Technical University
2. Ismayil Ismayil, Azerbaijan Technical University
3. Feyruz Hasanov, BP-Azerbaijan

Project Partners -

1. Professor Proppe Carsten, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology, Germany
2. Professor, Davitashvili Nodar, Georgia Technical University, Georgia

3. Professor Erdal Celik, Dokuz Eylül University, Turkey

Science Development Foundation